

Stan Roberts Urges Early Camp Signups

"No group of people enjoy summer as much as boys. And when that season rolls around those little refugees from the classroom almost always think of camping," said Stan Roberts, Torrance YMCA executive secretary, as he made a plea to parents to sign up their boys early for the Round Meadow camping trips, which gets underway July 12.

He described the camp as "a wonderful site between Jenks Lake and Camp Angeles with a heated swimming pool and complete facilities."

"We have space for 140 boys 8 1/2 to 14 years old and have planned an interesting, eight-day program for them," Roberts said.

Activities will include horseback riding, hiking, exploring, swimming, campfire programs, church services and handicraft projects.

Roberts added that youngsters will be housed in Adirondack cabins. The camp also features plenty of good food which is served in a modern dining hall.

According to Roberts, the program, which stresses group experience as a method of teaching fair play, is carefully planned in advance but "is elastic enough to take care of special activities, some of which are suggested by the boys themselves."

The executive secretary said there will be a leader from Torrance for every seven boys.

Roberts will be the camp director.

Reservations are still available at the YMCA, 2080 Washington. FAirfax 8-1272.

B'nai B'rith Girls Elect Officers

New officers of the B'nai B'rith Girls, sponsored by the women's chapter, have recently been elected, and will be installed July 16.

The new officers include Lynda Gorchester, president; Marsha Goldberg, vice-president; Judy Roben, corresponding secretary; Sara Lee Sloan, recording secretary; Marcia Cohen, treasurer; Joanne Fink, sentinel; Betty Don conductor; Vikki Chandler, publicity; and Harriet Hocker, historian.

Outgoing president, Carla Goldenson, will be counselor. Misses Betty Jean Goldenson and Marlene Berns, who have been members of the group for six years, will leave in September to attend college.

Meetings of the B'nai B'rith Girls are held on the first and third Tuesdays of each month, at the Gardena Center at 7:30. The group is open to girls of the Jewish faith between the ages of 14 and 18. Advisors include Mmes. Richard Schroeder and Maurice Gorchester of Torrance.

St. Andrew's Men to Meet

The members and friends of St. Andrew's Men's Fellowship will meet on June 29. The meeting will open in the church with a short form of evening prayer conducted by the laymen of the church.

Following in the parish house, the Rev. Mr. William A. Gilbert of St. Paul's church, Ventura, will speak on capital punishment. Open group discussion will follow, and the men will then adjourn for refreshments. All men of the community, regardless of church affiliation, are welcome to this meeting.

Ground-breaking Rites Held At New Jewish Center

Ground breaking ceremonies at the site of the Gardena Valley Jewish Center building, 148th street and Gramercy place, were witnessed by about 150 persons on Sunday afternoon, June 12.

The benediction was given by Rabbi Moishe Amine, after which master of ceremonies, Lou Bereskin, of Torrance, introduced the dignitaries present. He called upon Rev. Lowell B. McDowell, of the Episcopal church, Rev. Earl W. Isbell, of the Alondra Park Methodist church, and Pastor Gordon W. Collier, of the Seventh-Day Adventist church, each of whom offered a prayer for the success of the group's project.

Torrance Dignitaries

Councilman Nick Draie, who is also ex-mayor of Torrance, brought well-wishes from Mayor Albert Isen, who was unable to attend. He was accompanied by Councilman Mervin Schwab.

Councilmen Robert Shelby, Harvey Chapman, James Rush and Robert Finch of Gardena were introduced, as was Milton J. Kauffman, of the Kauffman Construction company. The latter was thanked by the organization for his generous donation to the building fund.

Lutheran Services Announced

Pastor Luther Siefkes, intern of the Torrance First Lutheran church, will use the theme "Follow Christ," as he delivers the message at the Sunday morning services to be held at 8 and 10:45 a.m.

The Chancel choir will sing at the 10:45 a.m. service, together with the women's quartet. Sunday school will begin at 9:30 a.m., as announced by Orville Sletten, Sunday school superintendent.

There will be an evening service at 7 p.m. with the children from the daily vacation Bible school leading the services with singing. Open house for the parents will follow the services, to give the children an opportunity to show their parents what they have accomplished in Bible school.

Rev. Paul Wenske, regular pastor, will be in Sacramento preaching the ordination sermon for Ralph Herman, former intern for the Torrance Lutheran church.

72 Enrolled In Walteria Bible School

Seventy-two pupils of kindergarten age through eighth grade enrolled Monday morning, June 20, for the 2-week vacation Bible school at the Community Methodist church in Walteria. Classes are being held daily Monday through Friday until July 1 from 9:30 a.m. until 12 noon.

This is the first year of Bible school sponsored by the 4-year-old Community Methodist church in Walteria. The commission on education, with Mrs. Gene Gehres as chairman, has provided for the school this summer. Teachers participating are Mmes. Harold Hayden, Kenneth Peerson, Doris Hague, Roy Cornell, Bruce Richardson, Beth Landis, and Hayward Johnson.

Craft workers and assistants are Mmes. Nancy Taylor, Ila De Mott, Helen Karbu, Jeanette Lawrence, Jan Gaz, Betty Carroll, Betty Claudiane, Betty Williams, Gloria Rose, Marj Pfau, and Lois Daniels.

Children may still enroll in the school, and next week will feature films and field trips.

the Gardena Valley Jewish Center will be held Tuesday evening, June 28, 8:30 p.m., at the Gardena Community center, 1651 Market street. A complete report will be given by the building committee, and all members and friends are urged to attend.

Rev. Taylor Returns to Methodist

Rev. John L. Taylor returns to his pulpit Sunday at the 9 and 11 a.m. worship services at First Methodist church, with the sermon topic, "We are Workers with God." J. Gene Walker, pre-ministerial student, will speak at the 10:15 a.m. Youth at Worship service.

High point of the week for the young people of the church will be the Methodist Youth Fellowship installation banquet at 6:30 p.m. Saturday, June 25, in Fellowship Hall at the church. Parents will be honored guests of the young people in the intermediate, senior high, and Wesley Fellowship groups. Rev. George Grose of Long Beach is the speaker. During the evening there will be presentation of an award to the M.Y.F.'er of the year.

Church school teachers are to be guests of the Brunch Club at a breakfast in Torrance Park Tuesday, June 28, at 9:30. The Brunch Club invites all Church School teachers and parents of children in the Church School to attend. The purpose of the Brunch Club is to bring about a closer relationship between the home and the Church School.

With reference to his Sunday subject, Dr. Barnum says, "God is always with us, because we are a part of Him, of his Universe. As an individualization of the Absolute, of the One Source, each of us is endowed with truly God-like power, and is in possession of great knowledge, though that power may be misused, and the knowledge clouded and obscured by wrong, confused, and misdirected thinking."

SCIENCE SERMON

The glory of God and His power and presence centers the discussion in the sermon on "Christian Science" in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, Sunday.

The Golden Text from Isaiah (40:5) declares, "The glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together; for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it."

The Torrance Church of Christ, Scientist, is located at 218th street and Manuel. Sunday school is held at 9:30 a.m., and Sunday morning services at 11 a.m.
